EDITO PRINCEPS? Both Brunet and Dibdin give date 1530 as that of the first edition of Polybius, but neither mention one of 1580. The work has every appearance of being of the earlier date (in colophon), and 1580 on title may be a misprint. It contains several large ornamental initials. The second work, besides ornamental initials, has on title page an unusually fine impression of the device of Badius.

Wilson Croker, carried on in the Edinburgh and Quarterly Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine. The two sequels are very rare, and seldom found with the "History." "Pausanias, &c.," wants half of three leaves. For notices, see Notes and Queries, vi. 220, and Lowndes' Bibl. Man., p. 2688.

A rare and most extraordinary work, as learned as entertaining, and one of the most curious and interesting in the English language. The "Pedigree," which shows the fopperies of the Gallants of the period to be derived from the fashions of rude and barbarous people, is very amusing, the cuts bringing out by comparison the points of resemblance in a comical and almost startling manner.

Excessively Rare, there being only about [illegible] known copies. Dr David Laing's copy, which had several leaves mended, sold for £148, and another recently for £110. This is a very fair copy, but seven leaves are in facsimile (viz., first four, last two, and fol. xci.). The top margin is rather small, five or six of the head lines having been cut into.

One of the most interesting and remarkable Scottish books of the 16th century. Mr Gladstone, on first seeing a copy, was so struck with its great historical interest and importance, that he strongly urged its re-publication. Written just before the Scottish Reformation, there is apparently no undue disposition to tone down the doctrines of the old faith to suit the new, and yet while authoritatively setting forth a system of instruction within the limits of the Roman obedience, the compiler does not once make mention of the Pope or the Church of Rome.

Fine Copy of this rare collection.

The first work (dedicated to Henry III. of France) contains much curious information not to be found elsewhere; and the second (dedicated to Mary, Queen of Scots) is a panegyric upon the laws, religion, and valour of Scotland. The third is dedicated to Catherine de Medici.

The author was a native of Ross-shire and styled "of Ormond." A devoted adherent of Mary Queen of Scots, who raised him to a seat on the bench, he was one of those publicly denounced as concerned in the murder of Darnley. He aided in the compilation of "the Black Acts," and is described by Dempster as "a man of much and varied reading, and of not unkindly genius."

Inserted at beginning are three leaflets, viz.:—A "Sonet" commencing "Fra banc to banc fra vod to vod I rin"; lines in Latin to James VI.; and lines in Greek, all by Alex. Boyde of Trochrig. The Latin and Greek verses are in manuscript within gold floral borders. At end is bound in a manuscript of 18 leaves, being "Excerptions out of a little thin book in octavo, entitled, 'A Memorial of Monarchs from Brute to King Charles.'" These are partly in rhyme and end with a character of Queen Elizabeth, beginning

A Debora, a Judith, a Susanna,
A Virgin, a Virago, a Diana;
Couragious, zealous, learned, wise, and chaste,
With heavenly, earthly gifts, adorn'd and grac'd,
Victorious, glorious, bountious, gracious, good,
And one whose virtues dignifi'd her blood. . . . &c.

A great curiosity: in fine preservation.

This volume (consisting of about 450 leaves, of which over 300 are written upon), seems to have been designed for the purpose of containing a complete system of Astrology and Astronomy. The writing and figures are beautifully executed. The principal contents include:—

Astronomical Rules for Tables; Tables of the Planets in every degree; 25 diagrams of eclipses with hieroglyphical figures underneath; Astrol. diagrams, with 56 horoscopal figures, probably to represent every 5° of the sign; Astrol. observations; various Tables of Equations, Occultations, Conjunctions, Planetary houses, Motions, &c.; horoscopes; longitudes of Planets, 1441-1531, &c.

A printed label inside cover runs:—"Rev. et nob. Dom. Wolfgangus Andreas Rem à Ketz, Cath. Eccles. The names are within neatly executed diagrams in red and blue running through the body of the MS., which is written in a neat, small, legible character; and ornamented at end by a representation of the seven-branched candlestick. On the back is a table of Roman Mythology. 42s

Pretty edition, printed with very small type which bears the name of "sedanois." Very curiously this edition obtained a fictitious value in consequence of the Duc de La Vallière's copy being reported (in Cailleau's Bibliography) to have sold at 615 francs. It ought to have been 6.15 (6 livres 15 sous), which is, as Brunet remarks, "slightly different."

In this copy several of the tunes which had been named after Scottish towns are named after George II., Sir Robert Walpole, and other Royal and political persons. CHOICE BOOKS OF LIMITED IMPRESSIONS.

ANNALS of SCOTTISH PRINTING, from the Introduction of the Art in 1507 to the beginning of the Seventeenth Century. By R. DICKSON and J. P. EDMOND, numerous facsimiles, demy 4to, buckram, uncut, 42s

Printed on Dutch hand-made paper; only 500 copies printed, each numbered and signed.

ANNALS of SCOTTISH PRINTING, large paper copy, royal 4to, bound in 2 vols. in half Japanese vellum, uncut edges, 84s

Only 100 copies printed, each numbered and signed.

A beautiful and thoroughly good book, in itself a model specimen of typography.

The Scotsman, in a very laudatory notice, says: "It will be eagerly sought for by book hunters of many classes. Its curious illustrations are all beautifully reproduced. The descriptions of the books are a treasure to the bibliomaniac, both as being part of the history of rare books and as giving such information as may lead to the detection of hitherto unknown copies. Everything has been done to make the work thorough."

CIBBER, COLLEY. APOLOGY for his life; with notes and supplement by R. W. Lowe. 1889. 26 original mezzotint portraits by R. B. Parkes, and 18 etchings by Lalauze, 2 vols. royal 8vo, 84s

∵ Large paper copy (only 305 printed), having duplicate set of the portraits, printed on Japanese paper.

In order to illustrate the "Apology," reprints of two tracts of great rarity, the "Historia Histrionica" and Aston's "Brief Supplement" to Cibber's "Lives of the Actors," are included in the work.

GOZZI, COUNT CARLO. MEMOIRS, translated by J. A. SYMONDS; with Essays on Italian Impromptu Comedy, Gozzi's Life, the Dramatic Fables, and Pietro Longhi, by Mr Symonds. Portrait and 6 Etchings by Lalauze, and 11 copperplates illustrating Italian Comedy, hand-coloured, 2 vols., 70s

∵ Large paper copy (only 210 copies printed) with the etchings in duplicate, one set being India proofs.

GRAMMONT. MEMOIRS OF COUNT GRAMMONT by Hamilton. Edited, with notes, by Sir Walter Scott. Portrait and 33 etchings by L. Boisson on India paper, from original compositions, by C. Delort. Imperial 8vo, fine deckle-edge paper (scarce), 84s

One of the most beautiful volumes that has appeared for many a year. It is almost impossible to speak in exaggerated terms of the exquisite beauty of the Illustrations. The dainty grace of the vignettes reminds one of the work of Eisen and the other petits maitres of the 18th century.

GRONOW. REMINISCENCES and RECOLLECTIONS of CAPTAIN GRONOW; being Anecdotes of the Camp, Court, Clubs, and Society, 1810-1860. With portrait, 4 woodcuts, and 20 etched and aquatint illustrations from contemporary sources by Joseph Grego. 2 vols. royal 8vo, cloth, gt. top, 84s

Only 870 copies printed, each being numbered. The illustrations are in duplicate, one set on plate paper, remarque proofs; the other on Whatman paper, with titles, and coloured by hand.

∵ The original edition of this entertaining work has long been out of print and scarce. This one, to which the beautiful and interesting illustrations impart an additional value, is already scarce, and rising in price.

TENNYSON and LEAR. POEMS BY ALFRED LORD TENNYSON, ILLUSTRATED BY EDWARD LEAR. 1889. 4to, hf.-bd., crushed olive morocco, gilt top, £12, 12s

∵ Only 100 copies printed, all on Japanese paper. Each copy certified and signed by Lord Tennyson.

The Poems are "To Edward Lear on his travels in Greece," "The Palace of Art," "The Daisy"; with an introduction by FRANKLIN LUSHINGTON. The ILLUSTRATIONS are 22 Landscapes by Lear, portrait of Tennyson by G. F. Watts, R.A., and portrait of Lear: 24 in all: reproduced in Goupilgravure by Boussod, Valadon & Co., by whom both plates and text were printed at Asnières, near Paris. Copies were all subscribed for months before publication and are already very difficult to get.

"Through many years Lear set apart a selected series of designs which he labelled 'Landscape illustrations of Tennyson,' of which those here published are a sample. . . . They are Lear's Sermons on texts taken from Tennyson."—Introduction. The work is got up with a view of carrying out to some extent a long cherished dream of Lear's, never realized, of associating in a larger publication his name with that of the poet's.
